

Keynote Speaker – A policewoman’s Story

Format: 45 - 60 minute keynote

Carolyn speaks from the heart as she details her true-life experiences dealing with the very relevant issues of bullying and discrimination.

She is passionate about not now tipping the scales of justice in the opposite direction and discriminating against males. It should never be about gender. It should always be about mutual respect, dignity and equality.

Carolyn’s presentation is emotional, straight forward and captivating. It will inspire, motivate and help to empower your audience.

Topics Covered:

- Bullying and Discrimination
- Politics and the Workplace
- Social Issues
- Health & Well-being
- Positive Action

The audience will leave with:

- Many thought provoking questions that will be discussed long after Carolyn’s presentation
- A new outlook on workplace bullying – Why the “Bully” does what they do
- Don’t be the innocent bystander – there is no such thing
- What it means to overcome the isolation and bullying of workplace harassment
- It should always be about equality and respect, not gender
- We all have an inner strength
- Inspiration & motivation to be part of the solution

Testimonial

“Carolyn Pethick enthralled our Sunbury and Macedon Ranges VIEW Club meeting with stories from her book, TO HELL AND BACK, A POLICEWOMAN’S STORY. The ladies loved her presentation and were eager to purchase her book afterwards to learn more. As the Program Officer for that VIEW Club, I am always searching for interesting Guest Speakers and previously, when I attended a function where Carolyn was speaking, I immediately approached her after and asked her to talk to our group. Listening to her twice was a huge bonus. I have since recommended Carolyn to nearby Probus Clubs. If you have the chance to attend a function when Carolyn is speaking, I would suggest that you don’t miss it.”
